

Cannabis Retail Applicant Licensing Checklist

If you're applying for standalone cannabis retail license, these are the documents you'll need to have ready to upload into the online license application system.

If you are applying for a vertically integrated license, you only have to upload the social and economic equity plan, and proof of age for every controlling person.

- A social and economic equity plan
The social and economic equity plan should describe the applicant's plan to encourage economic and social diversity in employment.

The applicant's plan should include race, ethnicity, gender, age, and residential status of licensee, controlling persons and employees of applicant and whether the applicant, controlling persons, employees or the locations where the cannabis products are produced are located in an underserved rural community, including tribal, acequia, land grant-merced, federally designated opportunity zone, or other rural historic communities.

- Proof of age for every controlling person
Proof of age includes identification issued by a federal or state government that includes the name, date of birth, and picture of the applicant or the controlling person.

For each premise that you're seeking a license, you'll need to upload:

- A diagram of the premise
The diagram must show (as applicable):
 - the boundaries of the property and the proposed premises to be licensed;
 - the dimensions of each area that cannabis plants will be cultivated;
 - the location(s) and the dimensions of other areas where other horticulture will be cultivated; and,
 - where all cameras are located and assign a number to each camera for identification purposes.

The diagram must include (as applicable):

- any equipment to be used;
- entrances and exits;
- interior partitions;
- location of lights in the cannabis plant cultivation area(s) and the maximum wattage or wattage equivalent;
- walls;
- rooms;
- windows;
- doorways; and,

- a brief statement or description of the principal activity to be conducted in each area on the premises.

The diagram must be to scale and in black-and-white print, and it should not contain any highlighting.

If the proposed premises consists of only a portion of a property, the diagram must be labeled indicating which part of the property is the proposed premises and what the remaining property is used for.

If the proposed premises consists of only a portion of a property that will contain two or more licensed premises, then the diagram must be supplemented with a description of how two or more licensed premises will be managed on the property.

If the proposed premises is located on only a portion of a property that also includes a residence, the diagram shall clearly show the designated buildings for the premises and the residence.
